Booking Conditions

- 1: A deposit of 25% of the cost of the holiday must accompany the booking request. The deposit is non refundable unless we are unable to accept the booking.
- 2: The balance of the holiday payment is payable 6 weeks in advance to Mr B Hagar. If the balance is not received within 6 weeks of the commencement of the holiday then this may be taken to mean that the holiday has been cancelled, and we will endeavour to re let and send you a refund.
- 3: Once a booking is confirmed, the holidaymaker is liable for the balance of the rent for a holiday property. We must be notified in writing immediately of any cancellation, and will endeavour to re let the accommodation, and if successful the holidaymaker will be refunded. Please give as much notice as possible. If we are unable to re let the accommodation at a full rate then the holiday makers refund will alter accordingly. Each week booked will be booked as a separate booking for the purpose of this clause.
- 4: In no circumstances can the period booked be exceeded and the number of persons shall not exceed the number stated on the booking form. The right of entry is reserved during reasonable hours for inspection and repairs deemed necessary.
- 5: The tenant of a holiday home undertakes to keep the premises and effects in the same state of repair and shall pay the owner the value of any damages or loss to the premises, fittings and effects other than reasonable wear and tear, and leave the premises in the same condition of cleanliness and general order that it was found in. The owners reserve the right to make a charge where guests have contravened the owners request for the property to be smoke free.
- 6: The holiday maker promises to reimburse us for any bank charges losses reasonably sustained due to cheques being either re-presented or dishonored.
- 7: If you have a complaint then please contact us on the number on the booking form. It is important that this is done whilst you are still at the property so investigations can be made and remedial action taken. No compensation can be considered for complaints raised after the holiday has ended and where the owners have been denied the opportunity to investigate or remedy the complaint. Please remember that outgoing holiday makers do not always report damaged equipment.
- 8: The accommodation is for use as a holiday home only, there is no right to remain in the accommodation after the holiday. The holiday maker promises to adhere to our arrival and departure times as notified on the directions. The person signing the booking form is and will remain responsible for the members of their party and should make sure they are aware of the booking conditions and that they meet the obligations arising there from in every way. If the booking conditions are contravened in any way - the owners may refuse the right of entry to the property and no money will be refunded.
- 9: A booking is only deemed to have been contracted when full payment has been banked and a receipt confirming the booking is sent to you. Any receipt sent in error (giving incorrect details) is invalid for these purposes. Any previous action is tentative booking and not legally binding on any party.
- 10: No clause in these conditions exclude the holiday makers rights under the "Unfair Contracts Terms Act"
